December 14, 2003

Present: Barbara Deppner, David Robinson, Lyn Cope-Robinson, Jack Deppner, Gail Rogers, Tom Marcinkowski, Marie Marcinkowski.

1. Meeting opened with a moment of silence.
2. Minutes from last meeting for business were read and corrected.
3. Our recent website provider has gone out of business, and the website has been moved to a new host, located in Sebastian, FL, at a cost of $100 per year, with no change in web address. Lyn expects that we will get a refund from the former company.
4. Nominating Committee – David expects to send out a request for information and willingness in the near future.
5. Treasurer's report: Balance last meeting for business meeting was $882.69, received were $210 in contributions, dispersed this meeting for business were $550 to SEYM as part of our contribution, leaving a balance of $542.69. The specific amount of our assessment for this year is not yet known.
6. The annual request for information and contributions is to be sent during the next month by Tom and Lyn.
7. Location for meeting for worship: December and January – home of Jack and Barbara Deppner. February – home of David Robinson and Lyn Cope-Robinson. March yet to be determined. Our intention is to move out of doors again when weather permits. Alternatives were considered, including sharing space with another religious group when it is otherwise unoccupied, rooms at a public library, etc. Friends are encouraged to investigate spaces they think may be available. A permanent meetinghouse is desirable when financially possible. Other SEYM meetings that have acquired meetinghouses recently have seen their attendance double and triple.
8. We offer our condolences to Larry Ascher and family regarding the recent death of Larry's father.
9. Meeting for business is to be followed with a session to review proposed revised sections of the SEYM Faith and Practice.
10. Meeting ended with a moment of silence.

Respectfully submitted,

Gail Rogers
